Dear Tincy Makson Benjamin,

On behalf of the Department of English at St. Andrew's College, we thank you for your role in acting as an Indian Sign Language (ISL) interpreter for our keynote speaker, Prof. (Dr) Isiah Lavender III, on 11 September 2020 from 9.30 to 10.30 am, and for our featured speaker, Ms. Monidipa (Mimi) Mondal, on 12 September 2020 from 9.30 am to 10.30 am.

Your presence and skill helped make our international conference on "The Possible and Impossible Worlds of Science Fiction" (conducted via Zoom webinar and YouTube livestream) a far more inclusive space. We are extremely grateful for your professionalism, expertise, and willingness to collaborate with us.

We hope that this is a first step in future collaborations with the Equal Opportunity Cell at St Andrew's College which seeks to provide accessible, anticaste, user-friendly, and economically viable services and support systems to students and staff at our institution.

Thank you,

Yours faithfully,

On behalf of the Accounts Department and the B.Com. students of our college, we thank you for permitting us to visit MET campus for Mock CET, GD and PI workshop.

The valuable time given by your staff to arrange this workshop has enhanced the technical skills of our students. Without your help and support we could not have achieved this exposure in grooming young minds.

We are grateful and we appreciate the efforts taken by you and your team in making our visit successful.

Thank you and your team once again and good wishes to you. We also look forward to similar informative visits in future.

Thank you.

On behalf of the English and Sociology Departments at St. Andrew's College, we thank you for conducting a guest lecture on the topic of Autoethnography as a specialised resource person for our SYBA and TYBA students. We greatly appreciate your effort and expertise in introducing the students to this field of study, and offering students means by to become aware of narratives they inhabit every day and consider whether they would want to celebrate or resist these.

I am sure that the valuable information and insight that you provide to our students will be of great use in their future endeavours.

Thank you,

Yours faithfully,

M. B. Fernandes

MIS 6A/2020-21/26 November 2020

Dear Miranda Ruth Larsen,

On behalf of St. Andrew's College, we thank you for conducting a public guest lecture on the topic of 'Kpop as Transcultural Media Industry' as a specialised resource person for the Department of English. We greatly appreciate your effort and expertise in introducing the students to the transcultural inceptions of the Kpop industry and its current global media and fandom. Your talk offered media analysis and the realities of transcultural production alongside of discussions of problematic industry practices, cultural misappropriation, fandom and its toxic aspects, and more. All of these are valuable aspects for consideration.

We also greatly appreciate your co-operation with the college's Equal Opportunity Cell that provided live summaries for the event to provide additional access.

I am sure that the valuable information and insight that you have provided to our community will be of great use to them in their future endeavours.

Thank you,

Yours faithfully,
