

Communication Skills Course

20 sessions
1.5 hour per session

In these times of hyper-connectivity, we spend more than 80% of our day communicating with each other but how much of it is really effective?

Communication is a skill that can be learnt, provided we are willing to work at it. Through this course of 15 lessons, we will peel away at each topic and practice exercises aimed at improving your command over the subject.

If you desire, you can also opt for the additional 5 lessons to practice and take the certification examination in Communication Skills through Trinity College London.

WHAT YOU WILL ACHIEVE

- Stronger relationships through powerful interpersonal communication.
- Deliver better presentations and overcome fear of public speaking.
- Have engaging and memorable group interactions.
- Be more confident and pro active during job interviews.
- Harness the power of Social Media.

WHAT YOU WILL LEARN

The 4 C's of the Communication process
How to give memorable introductions
The "Five Finger Retell" reading strategy
The 10,20,30 principle of Presentation
Debating principles
Mastering the Art of the Interview

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

The course is open to all – recommended age 16+, from college graduates to young professionals who are either seeking jobs or just entering the workspace.

To register call Sheldon Aranjó at 7042366889 or send an email to sheldon@randomgenius.in