

Library Notice

Students should return books issued on their library cards or books issued under the book bank scheme within a month from the date college reopens.

Given the COVID-19 pandemic we will not be charging a late fee for the lockdown period and till the college officially reopens.

For those who would like to do some reference work we have uploaded links for e-resources on library webpage for your convenience.