

Counselling Room

St. Andrew's College Counselling Unit has been trying to reach out to students in need of any help, be it academics, development or social; which means, providing assistance in areas of need by enriching life and making a difference and in order to assist them to achieve personal and social growth and development. There is a special room dedicated for counselling sessions for the students on the fourth floor of the main building.

