

NSS room

The National Service Scheme also known as NSS is an Indian Government sponsored public service program. The volunteers of this organization take part in various activities that assist various NGO's and other organizations that also provide verified certificates. There exists a special room on the second floor, where the NSS activities are carried out.

