

Course Name: Certificate Program in Introduction to French

Prof. Name: Ms. Anmol Khanna

Duration: 20 sessions (90 mins each)

Lecture Schedule: Monday & Tuesday

Timings: 5.00-6.30 pm

Fees: Rs 2000

Course Objective: The Certificate program in Introduction to French gives you an introduction to French Language and culture. You would be able to understand your level of interest in the language and would be able to take the decision about your interest in French Language Studies. You would also be able to acquaint yourself with Francophone countries.

Career Opportunity:

There are huge job openings in the world globally in various fields. One can gain knowledge of higher levels of language and ace your career in Translation and Interpretation. 'Teaching' could be another career opportunity. This course could be a base for immigration to Francophone countries like Canada. Companies with French, African and Canadian subsidiaries in sectors like Finance, Tourism, Marketing, Luxury Brand Management etc have various opportunities in different positions.

Program Content:

Module 1 Basic Greetings and Conversation

Module 2 Talk about Professions, Hobbies, Food and Parts of the Body

Module 3 Read the time

Module 4 Mathematics: Numbers 1-100

Module 5 Sing Songs, Write Poems and Learn Popular Dialogues

Module 6 Subject Pronouns, Articles, Sentence Formation, Important Irregular Verbs and Regular Verb Patterns, Prepositions

Module 7 Speak about Family and Friends

Module 8 Learn Colours, Days of the week, Months of the Year and French Accents

Module 9 Form Negative Sentences, Questions and Imperative Sentences

Module 10 Self-Introduction and to give basic descriptions

Examination

Practical Activity- Video Creation in French and Final MCQ exam after course completion.

About the Faculty

Ms. Anmol Khanna

Ms. Anmol Khanna has varied knowledge in international French market and has worked with French public and private giants in the fields of Hospitality and Tourism for several years. She was nominated by the Indian Embassy among the top Indian French language learners to represent India in France for a Project of 2 years. She has also been a torch bearer in French Public schools and colleges to conduct training related to 'French-English' Language in schooling years. She holds an international certification in French language which equates the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR) levels. She holds a degree from British Council for conducting International English Language Testing System (IELTS) Examinations. She has around 9 years of experience as a teacher and also as a Human Resource Enthusiast. She holds a Masters of Management- Human Resources from Mumbai University. She has experience of working with large industry giants across European market, Indian Market and also as an HR Consultant for Small and mid – sized companies.