28 July 2022	1 hour	23	Discerning between God's Will and our Mind	The session explained the difference between decision making and discernment. The session was focused on understanding how our choices can influence the decisions we take. Further, the speaker told the students never choose evil, rather to make choices that bring good or greater good. Any life worth living involves sacrifice and suffering. But if we are following God's call – whether that be marriage, religious life, single life, or priesthood – it will also bring great satisfaction and joy.
30 September 2022	1 hour	22	Sin and Confession	The session gave the details of concepts of Baptism, Sin and Love which are some important aspects of one's life. The interactive session also explained about how we should keep a track of the liberty and freedom which has been handed over to us by the almighty God.
02 February 2023	1 hour	37	How do we live the Christian way in action	The session gave insight on what is the real meaning to be a true Christian. The speaker further stressed on the fact that we need to have a personal relation with God. The Speaker advised the students for confession and explained the importance of the sacrament.
